Not A Care In This World

Not a care in this world.
They have all dropped away.
She is high on the hill,
In all her glory today.

Not a care in this world.
In silence she has entered.
Her heart and her pains, on
The Father she has committed.

Not a care in this world.
All her work down here is done.
At last she has peace and
Her victory is Won!

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
MS. JOYCE ROBERTS

Ms. Joyce Roberts was born on December 8, 1921, to the late Hartman and Ophelia (Rahming) Roberts in Nassau, Bahamas. She was the last elder of our beautiful family, and was preceded in death by her sisters: Revesie (Roberts) Poitier and Etta Roberts, her brother: Charles Solomon Roberts, and her nephew: Ezekiel Poitier, Jr. She went home June 6, 2014.

Early in her life she lived in New York, where she worked as a Dental Assistant for seven years. She enjoyed traveling and lived a life of serving others. She left New York to come to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to support her sister Etta, as a Care Giver for her mother.

She was an ongoing, faithful member of the church, and she always had an encouraging word for her family and others, as she passionately quoted scripture, God’s words of life to them. As her health declined she was still able to recall her favorite scriptures and sing her favorite songs to the very end, with all praises to our great heavenly Father. She was deeply and dearly loved by her family and friends.

Joyce Roberts is survived and celebrated by three nieces: Delores (Poitier) Henry of Culver City, California; Renee (Poitier) Kearse of Miami Gardens, Florida; and Katherine (Roberts) Russell, (Anderson) of Fort Lauderdale, Florida; four nephews: Kingsley Poitier, Sr. (Eloise) of Nassau, Bahamas; Cornell Poitier of Laveen, Arizona; Clement Roberts, (Linda) of San Diego, California; and Rahming Roberts of Hollywood, Florida; and by a host of grand, and great-grand nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.
